

Thommy Andersson

Thommy Andersson is, besides playing bass & cello, educator, composer for rhythmic and classical ensembles, arranger for orchestras and soloists.

He has established himself with a warm & “woody” personal playstyle from the Swedish folkmusic tradition.

He plays currently with Pierre Dørge´s New Jungle Orchestra who tours the globe frequently.

Besides the collaborators in Scandinavia as Josefine Cronholm, Lelo Nika, Jesper Zeuthen a.o, he has been a part of collaborations with highly acclaimed musicians as Yusef Lateef, Kenny Werner, Bob Gulotti, Paul Bley, Adam Nussbaum, Jonathan Blake, Randy Brecker, Han Bennik, Jerry Bergonzi, David Kikoski, Alex Riel, Hamid Drake, Daniel Humair, Kirk Knuffke, Chris Cheek, Manolo Badrena, Harry Becket, Raoul Björkenheim, Rune Gustavsson, Ray Anderson, Herb Robertson, John Tchicai, Marc Ducret, John Tchicai a.o

He has recorded 4 soloalbums & 9 albums as a co-leader. He participates on more than 200 albums.